African Americans and the Military

Guide for Curriculum Unit 02.03.07
by Burt Saxon

This unit presents an in-depth discussion of the role of African-Americans in the United States military. The unit focuses both on African-American achievements and the discrimination African-Americans faced within the military. Ten lesson plans are provided for classroom teachers. The unit is best suited for advanced students of United States history.

(Recommended for U.S. History, grades 10-12.)
