

112TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 2255

To support the establishment and operation of Teachers Professional Development Institutes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JUNE 21, 2011

Ms. DELAURO (for herself and Mr. FATAH) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Education and the Workforce

A BILL

To support the establishment and operation of Teachers
Professional Development Institutes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. TEACHERS PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT IN-
4 STITUTES.

5 (a) IN GENERAL.—Part A of title II of the Elemen-
6 tary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C.
7 6601 et seq.) is amended by adding at the end the fol-
8 lowing:

1 “Subpart 6—Teachers Professional Development
2 Institutes

3 “SEC. 2161. SHORT TITLE.

4 “‘This subpart may be cited as the ‘Teachers Profes-5 sional Development Institutes Act’.

6 “SEC. 2162. FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.

7 “(a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following find-8 ings:

9 “(1) Teaching is central to the educational 10 process and the ongoing professional development of 11 teachers in the subjects they teach is essential for 12 improved student learning.

13 “(2) Attaining the goal of the No Child Left 14 Behind Act of 2001 (Public Law 107–110)—having 15 a classroom teacher who is highly effective in every 16 academic subject the teacher teaches—will require 17 innovative approaches to improve the effectiveness of 18 teachers in the classroom.

19 “(3) The Teachers Institute Model focuses on 20 the continuing academic preparation of school-
21 teachers and the application of what the teachers 22 study to their classrooms and potentially to the 23 classrooms of other teachers.

24 “(4) The Teachers Institute Model was devel-25 oped initially by the Yale-New Haven Teachers In-

1 stitute and has successfully operated in New Haven,
2 Connecticut, for more than 30 years.

3 “(5) The Teachers Institute Model has also 4 been successfully implemented in cities larger than 5 New Haven.

6 “(6) In the spring of 2009, a report entitled 7 ‘An Evaluation of Teachers Institute Experiences’ 8 concluded that—

9 “(A) Teachers Institutes enhance precisely
10 those teacher qualities known to improve stu-
11 dent achievement;

12 “(B) Teachers Institutes exemplify the 13 crucial characteristics of high-quality teacher 14 professional development; and 15 “(C) Teachers Institute participation is 16 strongly related to teacher retention in high-17 poverty schools.

18 “(b) PURPOSE.—The purpose of this subpart is to 19 provide Federal assistance to support the establishment 20 and operation of Teachers Institutes for local educational 21 agencies that serve significant low-income student popu-22 lations in States throughout the Nation, in order to—

23 “(1) improve student learning; and 24 “(2) enhance the quality and effectiveness of 25 teaching and strengthen the subject matter mastery

1 and the pedagogical skills of current teachers
2 through continuing teacher preparation.

3 “SEC. 2163. DEFINITIONS.

4 “In this subpart:

5 “(1) SIGNIFICANT LOW-INCOME STUDENT POP-
6 ULATION.—The term ‘significant low-income student 7 population’ means a student population of which not 8 less than 40 percent of the students included are eli-9 gible for free or reduced price lunches under the 10 Richard B. Russell National School Lunch Act.

11 “(2) TEACHERS INSTITUTE.—The term ‘Teach-
12 ers Institute’ means a partnership or joint venture—

13 “(A) between or among—

14 “(i) 1 or more institutions of higher 15 education; and

16 “(ii) 1 or more local educational agen-
17 cies that serve 1 or more schools with sig-
18 nificant low-income student populations; 19 and

20 “(B) that improves the effectiveness of 21 teachers in the classroom, and the quality of 22 teaching and learning, through collaborative
23 seminars designed to enhance both the subject 24 matter and the pedagogical resources of the 25 seminar participants.

1 “SEC. 2164. PROGRAM AUTHORIZED.

2 “(a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary is authorized to 3 award grants under this subpart in order to encourage the 4 establishment and operation of Teachers Institutes.

5 “(b) TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE.—The Secretary may 6 reserve not more than 50 percent of the funds appro-7 priated to carry out this subpart to provide technical as-8 sistance to facilitate the establishment and operation of 9 Teachers Institutes. The Secretary may contract with the 10 Yale-New Haven Teachers Institute to provide all or part 11 of the technical assistance under this subsection.

12 “(c) SELECTION CRITERIA.—In selecting Teachers
13 Institutes to support through grants under this subpart, 14 the Secretary shall consider—

15 “(1) the extent to which a proposed Teachers
16 Institute will serve schools that have significant low-17 income student populations;

18 “(2) the extent to which a proposed Teachers
19 Institute will follow the understandings and nec-
20 essary procedures described in section 2166;

21 “(3) the extent to which each local educational 22 agency participating in the Teachers Institute has a 23 high percentage of teachers who are unprepared or 24 underprepared to teach the core academic subjects 25 the teachers are assigned to teach; and

1 “(4) the extent to which a proposed Teachers
2 Institute will receive a level of support from the 3 community and other sources that will ensure the 4 requisite long-term commitment for the success of a
5 Teachers Institute.

6 “(d) CONSULTATION.—

7 “(1) IN GENERAL.—In evaluating applications
8 using the criteria under subsection (c), the Secretary
9 may request the advice and assistance of the Yale-10 New Haven Teachers Institute or other Teachers In-11 stitutes.

12 “(2) STATE AGENCIES.—If the Secretary re-13 ceives 2 or more applications for grants under this 14 subpart from local educational agencies within the 15 same State, the Secretary shall consult with the 16 State educational agency regarding the applications.

17 “(e) FISCAL AGENT.—The fiscal agent for the receipt 18 of grant funds under this subpart shall be an institution 19 of higher education participating in the partnership or 20 joint venture, as described in section 2163(2)(A), that is 21 establishing or operating the Teachers Institute.

22 “(f) LIMITATIONS.—A grant under this subpart—

23 “(1) shall provide grant funds for a period of 24 not more than 5 years; and

1 “(2) shall be in an amount that is not more
2 than 50 percent of the total costs of the eligible ac-3 tivities supported under the grant, as determined by 4 the Secretary.

5 “SEC. 2165. ELIGIBLE ACTIVITIES.

6 “Grant funds under this subpart may be used—

7 “(1) for the planning, development, establish-8 ment, and operation of a Teachers Institute;

9 “(2) for additional assistance to an established 10 Teachers Institute for its further development and 11 for its support of the planning, development, estab-
12 lishment, and operation of a Teachers Institute 13 under paragraph (1);

14 “(3) for the salary and necessary expenses of a 15 full-time director for a Teachers Institute to plan
16 and manage the Teachers Institute and to act as a 17 liaison between all local educational agencies and in-18 stitutions of higher education participating in the 19 Teachers Institute;

20 “(4) to provide suitable office space, staff, 21 equipment, and supplies, and to pay other operating 22 expenses, for the Teachers Institute;

23 “(5) to provide a stipend for teachers partici-24 pating in the collaborative seminars conducted by 25 the Institute in the sciences and humanities and to

1 provide remuneration for members of the faculty of 2 the participating institution of higher education 3 leading the seminars; and 4 “(6) to provide for the dissemination, through 5 print and electronic means, of curriculum units pre-6 pared in the seminars conducted by the Teachers In-7 stitute.

8 “SEC. 2166. UNDERSTANDINGS AND PROCEDURES.

9 “A grantee receiving a grant under this subpart shall 10 abide by the following understandings and procedures:

11 “(1) PARTNERSHIP.—The essential relationship 12 of a Teachers Institute is a partnership between a 13 local educational agency and an institution of higher 14 education. A grantee shall demonstrate a long-term 15 commitment on behalf of the participating local edu-
16 cational agency and institution of higher education 17 to the support, including the financial support, of 18 the work of the Teachers Institute.

19 “(2) SEMINARS.—A Teachers Institute spon-20 sors seminars led by faculty of the institution of 21 higher education partner and attended by teachers
22 from the local educational agency partner. A grantee 23 shall provide participating teachers the ability to 24 play an essential role in planning, organizing, con-

1 ducting, and evaluating the seminars and in encour-
2 aging the future participation of other teachers.

3 “(3) CURRICULUM UNIT.—A seminar described 4 in paragraph (2) uses a collaborative process, in a 5 collegial environment, to develop a curriculum unit 6 for use by participating teachers that sets forth the 7 subject matter to be presented and the pedagogical 8 strategies to be employed. A grantee shall enable 9 participating teachers to develop a curriculum unit, 10 based on the subject matter presented, for use in the 11 teachers’ classrooms.

12 “(4) ELIGIBILITY AND REMUNERATION.—Semi-13 nars are open to all partnership teachers with teach-14 ing assignments relevant to the seminar topics. Sem-15 inar leaders receive remuneration for their work and 16 participating teachers receive an honorarium or sti-
17 pend upon the successful completion of the seminar.
18 A grantee shall provide seminar leaders and partici-19 pating teachers with remuneration to allow them to 20 participate in the Teachers Institute.

21 “(5) DIRECTION.—The operations of a Teach-
22 ers Institute are managed by a full-time director 23 who reports to both partners but is accountable to 24 the institution of higher education partner. A grant-

1 ee shall appoint a director to manage and coordinate
2 the work of the Teachers Institute.

3 “(6) EVALUATION.—A grantee shall annually
4 review the activities of the Teachers Institute and 5 disseminate the results to members of the Teachers
6 Institute’s partnership community.

7 “SEC. 2167. APPLICATION, APPROVAL, AND AGREEMENT.

8 “(a) IN GENERAL.—To receive a grant under this 9 subpart, a Teachers Institute, or a partnership or joint 10 venture described in section 2163(2)(A) that is proposing
11 to establish a Teachers Institute, shall submit an applica-12 tion to the Secretary that—

13 “(1) meets the requirement of this subpart and 14 any regulations under this subpart;

15 “(2) includes a description of how the applicant
16 intends to use funds provided under the grant;

17 “(3) includes such information as the Secretary
18 may require to apply the criteria described in section 19 2164(e);

20 “(4) includes measurable objectives for the use 21 of the funds provided under the grant; and 22 “(5) contains such other information and assur-

23 ances as the Secretary may require.

24 “(b) APPROVAL.—The Secretary shall—

1 “(1) promptly evaluate an application received 2 for a grant under this subpart; and

3 “(2) notify the applicant, within 90 days of the 4 receipt of a completed application, of the Secretary’s 5 determination.

6 “(c) AGREEMENT.—Upon approval of an application,
7 the Secretary and the applicant shall enter into a com-8 prehensive agreement covering the entire period of the 9 grant.

10 “SEC. 2168. REPORTS AND EVALUATIONS.

11 “(a) REPORT.—Each grantee under this subpart 12 shall report annually to the Secretary on the progress of 13 the Teachers Institute in achieving the purpose of this 14 subpart.

15 “(b) EVALUATION AND DISSEMINATION.—The Sec-
16 retary shall evaluate the activities funded under this sub-17 part and submit an annual report regarding the activities
18 assisted under this subpart to the Committee on Health, 19 Education, Labor, and Pensions of the Senate and the 20 Committee on Education and the Workforce of the House
21 of Representatives. The Secretary shall broadly dissemi-
22 nate successful practices developed by Teachers Institutes.

23 “(c) REVOCATION.—If the Secretary determines that 24 a grantee is not making substantial progress in meeting
25 the purposes of the grant by the end of the second year

1 of the grant under this subpart, the Secretary may take 2 appropriate action, including revocation of further pay-
 3 ments under the grant, to ensure that the funds available 4 under this subpart are used in the most effective manner.

5 “SEC. 2169. AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.

6 “There are authorized to be appropriated, for grants 7 (including planning grants) and technical assistance under 8 this subpart, such sums as may be necessary for fiscal 9 year 2012 and each of the 4 succeeding fiscal years.”.
